Welcome

The Universal Field, Unique & United is an extraordinary Master Activation Series designed to increase your ability to communicate with yourself and others through your connection to the Universal Field.

Your personal connection is an important system in your energy anatomy. Consciously working with your Universal Calibration Lattice® (UCL) co-creates an extraordinary quality of energetic communication - your intentions become more coherent and powerful.

Honoring the unique frequency that each person generates opens new pathways for the energies that are so important in these remarkable times of The Great Evolution.

Our Activation Sessions

1

In this energy session you will begin to work with frequencies of honor and respect for yourself, your Self, wholehearted, multidimensional YOU. Together we will activate the energies of knowing your Self as the Universal Field. This activation sets the foundations of healthy, balanced, loving, conscious communication and co-creation.

2

Your personal powers of co-creation increase as the dynamics of two or more are exponentially supported within the Universal Field. As humanity evolves, the frequencies of unity are redefined and wisely transformed to honor and accept the unique expressions of our many diverse cultures. This redefinition supports the unity of who we are as individuals, and all of the generations as our family of humanity.

3

We may now empower our personal expressions, and collectively bring together our UNIQUE perceptions of life, to provide a more complete view of reality and what is possible for us now. The opportunities are here for us to co-create a life of freedom with INTENTIONS that are profound. WE are ready to enter the new states of UNITED universal consciousness as we honor one another Core to Core. We may now know and experience a new sense of oneness, as we really are “Unique & United” in the Universal Field.

Master Activation Series

EMF BALANCING TECHNIQUE

Having your energy flowing well nourishes your body, mind & emotions creating greater wholeness in your life. Each of the sessions work within your energy system as if you were building a house. It starts with the foundation and moves up from there creating a total energetic clearing & realignment through a series of balancing sessions (Phases).

TUNING THE TEMPLATES OF NEW BALANCE

When you begin to follow your inner guidance, a sense of wonder shows up along with greater clarity, peace & integration. These 36 octahedron templates of light and energy are filled with your unique combination of symbols and energy patterns, much like your fingerprints. They are foundational tools for you to 'hear' and know your Innate Wisdom.
